IN TRYING TO FORM A STRONG CAB

General Harrison Will Have to Look Out for Suitable Timber Elsewhere-The house on the afternoon of the 4th of March, he will find written over the door the word failure. This has already been made evident by the difficulty he has experienced in making up his cabinet. There is no doubt of Allison's refusal being due to the appointment of Mr. Blaine. He was advised by all his colleagues, with two exceptions, to keep out of a cabinet that contained Mr. Blaine, and it is not believed that any member of the senate would go into Harrison's cabinet with the Maine man. He knows the feeling among the senators against Mr. Blaine, and this is due to the fact that he has decided not to offer any cabinet portfolio to a member of either house of congress. The senators feel that General Harrison's administration must be a failure, that Blaine will either run it or create a division and discord in the cabinet, which will result in an open rupture.

LOOKING ELSEWHERE FOR OFFICERS. Therefore General Harrison is looking out side to make up the balance of his cabinet, and is evidently having much trouble in forming it. John C. New, of Indiana, has been spoken of considerably within the past few days for the treasury, but his friends here say the break between him and Blaine, resulting from Blaine's statement that he could not get justice in Indiana, is too wide for the two m to serve in the same cabinet. A republican member, who is close to General Harrison said tonight that he believed besides Blain and Wanamaker, who have already accepted, the cabinet would contain Wm. Winds Minnesota, for the treasury; W. H. H. Miller, of Indiana, Harrison's law partner, attorney general, and ex-Governor Charles Foster, of Ohio, as postmaster-general. The others he thinks uncertain as yet.

The Ways and Means Committee.

The ways and means committee was again in session today, but have accomplished nothing whatever of importance. The democrats of the house who favor the passage of the Cowles bill to repeal the tax on manufactured tobacco-and they are in the majority-are anxious for a democratic caucus to decide upon some policy to be pursued by the democratic party in regard to the tariff, and to instruct the ways and means committee what the party wants to be done with the senate bill. The ways and means committee, however, are understood to be

OPPOSED TO THE CAUCUS, fearing that the caucus would instruct them to report a compromise measure, and if the senate refuses to agree to that measure, for the house to accept the internal revenue features of the two bills exclusively. The members of the ways and means cemmittee think this would be sacrificing a principal and say it is undemocratic. The majority of the democrats, however, believe this is all that can be done, and therefore it would be

REST TO ACCEPT IT. and thereby reduce the revenues about thirty millions of dollars. The opinion of the ma-jority of the democrats was well expressed by Mr. Candler today when he said:

'The ways and means committee should report as moderate a bill as the house is willing to accept. We should send this bill to the senate, and if they accept it, all right. If not, send it to a conference committee, and agree to the best terms we can get, if it only be the tobacco schedule and a portion of the free list My idea is to reduce the surplus, and the only thing it now seems we can agree upon is the tobacco tax. Let us accept that and reduce the Major Barnes Talks.

Major Barnes says the message of the presi dent sent to congress this afternoon, in reference to the acquisition of the lands of the Creeks in Indian territory, fully sustains the position which has always been taken by onents of the Oklahoma bill. "The bill. said, "proposes to organize a territory be fore the United States government has ac quired a title to the land which was to consti tute the territory. The opponents of the bill have always contended that it is necessary FIRST TO ACQUIRE A TITLE to the land and organize a territory afterwards The message informs congress that the govern Creeks, by which the government is to acquire the title to all the Creek land west of the line actually occupied by them. This comprises a large body of land in the central portion of proposed territory of Oklahoma. Under the treaty with the Creeks in 1866, the govern ment acquired the right to locate on this land friendly Indian: and freedmen-freedmen formerly held in slavery by the Creek Indians. Under the treaty now submitted to congress it acquires this land of the Creeks divested of these conditions, and with the right to acquire settlers' homesteads thereon. There can be no objection whatever to this policy. government adheres to this policy, and pur sues the same course to the Cherokees, Choc-taws and Chickasaws. The government will then acquire a good title to all the land of the proposed territory of Oklahoma

WITHOUT ANY BREACH OF ITS FAITH
with the five civilized tribes of Indians. I hope that Mr. Cleveland, or his successor, will pursue this policy and thus preserve the national faith and honor, and not attempt to establish a territorial government in advance of the acquisition of the title to the lands." Affairs in Arkansas.
Senator Berry returned from Arkansas tonight. He was in that state when the assass-ination of John M. Clayton occurred last week. Senator Berry talked quite freely about the matter tonight, and said that it was about the matter tonight, and said that it was a cowardly assassination, and so considered by the people of Arkansas, and it was without excuse. He says the governor offered the largest reward permitted by law, and a bill has already passed the senate authorizing him to increase it $5,000. He says meetings were held all over the state denouncing the murder, and that there were many private subscribers to the reward offered, making it a large sum.

THE REJECTION FAIR. THE ELECTION FAIR.

"So far as the congressional race is concerned," said Senator Berry, "I am thoroughly familiar with that district, and am certain that Mr. Breckinridge was honestly and fairly elected. Any statement to the effect that Clayton was killed to prevent Breckinridge being unseated is false. A great many, however, believe that the party who stole the ballot box killed Clayton through fear of being esught and sent to the penitentiary. No one seems to know who did the killing. The sheriff was in a distant part of the county at the time of the murder, but the deputy was at the county seat and immediately went to Plunmersville to know up the murderer who, Plummersville to kunt up the murderer who, however, could not be found."

MR. PRECENTRIDGE'S POSITION.
Speaking of the claim made by the republians that Mr. Breckinridge was unfairly lected, Senator Berry said:
"I stumped Mr. Breckinridge's district.

When I came here in December and met Mr. Breckinridge he (knowing that I was thoroughly familiar with the district) said that if there was any doubt whatever of his fair election he would not have the certificate. I replied that he was fairly and honestly elected. In 1884 his majority was 2,400; in 1886 his majority over both the republican and union labor candidates was 1,400. There has never been, prior to this time, any accusation or suspicion of fraud in congressional elections in this district."

Senator Berry will reply to Chandler when he discusses the matter in the senate.

OKLAHOMA IN THE SENATE.

The House Bill Taken Up-Appropriations The House Bill Taken Up—Appropriations for General Sheridan's Widow.

WASHINGTON, February 5.—In the senate, house bill for the establishment of a territorial government in Oklahoma, having been presented, Mr. Platt moved its reference to the committee on territories and Mr. Dawes moved its reference to the committee on Indian affairs.

The contention between these two committees for the possession of the bill was finally settled in favor of the committee on territories by a vote of 29 to 12; but not without much debate, participated in by Messrs. Morgan, Coke, Flatt, Dawes, Blair, Chace, Cockrell, Butler,
Hoar, Cullom and Vest.

Mr. West offered a resolution (which was agreed to) directing the commissioners of the District of Columbia to furnish information concerning the exclusion of persons from any of the charitable institutions of the District of Columbia on account of race, color, or any previous condition of servitude.

The bill giving right of way and other privileges to the Hampton and Old Point Railroad

MONEY FOR THE GENERAL'S WIDOW. Mr. Hawley offered an amendment to the undry civil appropriation bill, which was referred to the committee on military affairs, for the payment to the widow of General Sheri-dan of $50,000, "in grateful recognition of his minent and extraordinary services to his country."

country."

The house joint resolution for the payment of $590,000 to representatives of the late James B. Eads, was taken up and passed.

The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was then taken up—amendments to the bill were reported from the committee on appropriations were agreed to without question. They were few and unimportant, the only noticable one being that increasing the salary of the president's private secretary from $3,250 to $5,000.

A LITTLE CIVIL SERVICE TALK. An amendment offered by Mr. Hawley to in-crease the clerical force of the civil service commission prevoked discussion on the question of civil service reform. Mr. Hawley, having been asked by Mr. Plumb to discuss that question, declined to do so further than to say that the civil service commission had done a vast deal of good and was to be maintained, perfected and enlarged. He did not admit that the law had been enforced in good faith because he knew that there had been lamentable, outrageous evasions of it. It had been a blessing to the democratic party for the last four years; that there were from 10,000 to 15,000 offices placed under the civil service rules, and it would be a blessing to the republican party if for the next four years that number were increased to 15,000 or 20,000. If the existing law were not to be maintained it should have the necessary clerical force.

The conference committee not having agreed on the house amendment in reference to the transportation of oil, Mr. Sherman moved to concur in that amendment as being in the line concur in that amendment as being in the line of interstate commerce law. All that the house sought to accomplish by that amendment was, he said, to prevent a higher rate being charged for oil transported in baarrels than for oil transported in tanks of which latter mode of transportation the Standard oil company had a monopoly. The amendment seemed to him to be a just and properone, and to be in line with the measure which the senator from Illinois (Cullom) had fathered and carried through successfully. carried through successfully.

While the discussion was still in progress, Mr. Radieberger inade an enort to have an executive session, "so as to remove the obligation of secrecy" on the proceedings on the British extradition treaty, but a motion to adjourn prevailed at 5:15, neither the conference report nor the legislative appropriation bill begins been discussed. having been disposed of.

THE NICARAGUA DITCH.

The Right of the Government to Control It Discussed.

Washington, February 5 .- Mr. Clardy, of Missouri, called up, and the house proceeded to the consideration of the conference report on the Nicaraguan canal bill.

Mr. Cobb, of Alabama, thought that the nouse owed it to itself to reject the report. After mature consideration the house had put upon the senate bill certain amendments for he protection of the government. The amendments from which the house conferees had receded were those which were peculiarly obnoxious to the promoters of the scheme. On of them was that which required the prinfing on obligations of the company a proviso declar-ing that the government shall not be liable on ecount of the company. Considering the uestion of granting incorporation, Mr. Cobb declared that it was not fitting for a great government like the United States to put power in the hands of a set of men to go abroad

GET MONEY UNDER FALSE PRETENSES. There were millions in it to the incorporators, if the enterprise was a success; there was to be no loss if it was a failure. He then proceeded to argue that congress had no constitutional authority to erect a private business

Rayner, of Maryland, combated Mr. Cobb's arguments, which he said were out of date. The constitutionality of such legislation as that now proposed had been, he said, affirmed within a year by the supreme court of the United States. He sustained the action of the conference committee and advocated the

Mr. Bland, of Missouri, criticised the conference report in that it eliminated from the bill the amendments which had been adopted in the house, upon his motion reserving to the government th

Mr. Wilson, of Minnesota, criticised the conference committee for striking out the clause prohibiting the issue of stock until ten per cent shall have been paid in cash.

NEGROES ORDERED TO LEAVE MARION

A Colored Boss Fired Upon by a Mob-Threats to Burn a Factory Where Negrocs : ra Employed.

Marion, Ill., February 5 .- What threatesn to prove a serious race war has broken out in this city. A few weeks ago the firm of F. M. Westbrook & Sons, tobacco packers, imported a number of colored men to work in their factory, claiming that there are no white men capable of performing the work of stemming and stripping. This action on the part of the company greatly enraged a number of white workmen, and they sent notices to the colored men, warning them or receive summary punishment. Threats were also made to burn the factory and homes of the imported laborers. But little attention was paid to the threats, and Saturday night a lot of men went to the home of Logan Collins, a colored boss, and fired five shots into his house. Collins procured a revolver and returned the fire, but no one was hurt on either
TO LEAVE TOWN WITHIN TEN DAYS.

The factory owners say they will not discharge the new men, and an outbreak is be-lieved to be imminent.

HAVE REACHED THE IRON SCHEDULE. The Ways and Means Committee Studying the Tariff Bill. Washington, February 5.—The ways and means committee today continued the formal reading of the tariff bill and progressed as far as the iron schedules, which were under discussion when the committee adjourned.

Notice was given by a member of his inten tion to move to strike out the paragraph retion to move to strike out the paragraph re-lating to the fortification of wines, but so far the amendment has not been voted upon. All of the calculations of treasury experts have not yet reached the committee, it being found that the senate amendments were of larger scope than at first appeared.

MEMBERS CONSULTING.

As formal proceedings in committee progress, the democratic members are meanwhile consulting frequently in an effort to agree upon a line of policy to be followed in the treatment

Another motion entered this morning was one made by Mr. Breckinridge, of Arkansas, to strike out the section providing for a bounty on sugar. In fact searly all of the motions entered so far are to strike out the senate amendments to the original bill, and the necessity for votes upon them in detail at a later stage of the proceedings may be obviated by the simple expedient of voting at once to nonconcur en masse in the senate amendment.

WHO WERE THE FIFTEEN That Voted for the British Extradition

Treaty? Washington February 5.—An effort was made by Mr. Riddleberger this afternoon to secure an executive session of the senate in order to remove the injunction of secrecy from the vote by which the British extradition reaty was rejected last week. Since that vote reaty was rejected last week. Since that your was announced, many of the senators have received numerous letters asking if they were among the fifteen who voted for the treaty.

To these inquiries the senators have been compelled to reply that they are not able, under the rules of them eivensuances that it would be the reaty of them eivensuances that it would der the rules of the senate, to answer directly, but most of them give assurances that it would greatly delight them if their constituents could be advised of the facts in the case. There is a general feeling in favor of making the vote public, and the refusal of the senate to agree to do so today, caused some surprise. It is expected, however, that the publication will be ordered tomorrow.

I am convinced that such ratification will be of decided, benefit to the government, and that the agreement is entirely free from any suspicion of unfairness or injustice towards the Indians. I desire to call especial attention to the fact that to become effective the agreement must be ratified by congress prior to the first of July, 1889.

A draft of an act of ratification is herewith submitted.

A Rumor that He will Refuse the Secretary

INDIANAPOLIS, February 5 .- So far as can e learned here, Windom for the treasury seems to be a fixture. That he has been or will be tendered a place is accepted on al sides. There is a diversity of opinion as to the sides. There is a diversity of opinion as to the advisability of such an appointment, but on the whole sentiment among republicans here seems to favor it. On the other cabinet places nothing new has developed, and while it can be traced to no certain source, all agree that Rusk will be the next secretary of war. There was a rumor this evening that word had been received from Blaine that he would not accept the state department but it could not accept the state department, but it could not be ver

THE STRIKE IS OVER. And Deacon Richardson Will Run His Line

Today.

NEW YORK, February 5 .- All the roads that ran street cars yesterday are running again today, most of them on schedule time, and all of them meeting the demands of the traffic. Even the Belt line started out boldly this morning. At 9 o'clock this line had fifteen cars running. The first car on the down town end of the line was preceded and followed but this precaution was unnecessary, for all cars that followed proceeded without molestation. Very many of the strikers are ing for re-engagement, but some of the roads, notably the Fourth avenue. line, will have nothing to do with them. The Ninth avenue line was the only line that was idle and it was preparing to go to work. A party of men, presumably strikers, attacked a car this afternoon at Sixty-fifth street and Boulevard and began PATROL WAGON FILLED WITH POLICE,

PELTING IT WITH STONES. Passengers left the car, and the officer in charge of it, Thomas K. Snyder, having been hit in the face by one of the stones, he fired into the crowd. One of the mob was shot in the head, and died on the way to the hospital. His name is McGowan. He was a hostler on the Belt line road. Officer Synder was placed under arrest.

The Fifth avenue street car line in Brook-The Fifth avenue street car line in browlyn is running cars guarded by police today. It is expected that all the Atlantic avenue roads will be in operation in a week. President Richardson today refused to hold a conference with a committee of strikers. He said he was running 202 cars today on two lines of his road, and would make an effort tomorrow to put the whole system in operation.

SCHNEIDER IN COURT. After Officer Schneider had reported at police headquarters and been taken before Police Justice Patterson, witnesses, who volunteered their testimony, said that McGowan was probably killed by a shot from the conductor's revolver; that Schneider was shooting into another part of the crowd. The evidence showed that the attack was preconcerted. The mob consisted of several hundred men under a leader, who gave the signal for attack. They were showering stones upon the officer, conductor and driver, who were surrounded and in danger of their lives. Schneider began shooting over the heads of the mob, but that did no good. The stones few all the faster. When Schneider's front teeth were knocked out by a stone he fired into the mob and wounded two men. Meanwhile the conductor and driver were shooting also, and the fusillade drove the rioters away. They car off two wounded men, but left McGowan They carried hind, as he was apparently dead. He died in a few minutes. Upon this evidence, the officer was released and warrants issued for the arrest of the conductor and the driver. Eye witnesses describe the fight of the officer and the two street car men with the mob as the "nerviest" they ever heard of. The scene of trouble is on the west side of Central park.

The Strike Declared Off. The strike on the surface roads was declared off tonight.

AN ENGINE TURNS OVER. And Its Driver Crushed Into a Shapeles Mass.

Boston, February 5 .- A terrible accident occurred shortly after midnight on the Lowell railroad, near Prospect Street station, in Somerville, whereby an engineer lost his life and a fireman, brakeman and conductor severely, if not fatally, injured. An eye witness says about 12:30 a. m. a locomotive and tender passed up the track toward the Arlington branch, which it appears was on its way to Somerville. The engine, as it passed the bridge and neared Winter Hill station, swayed back and forth, and then after it had gone a short distance, it left the track and

TOPPLED OVER ON ITS SIDE.

It was found that the engine had fallen across the inward track and a man was pinioned beneath the cab. One of the injured men had taken the precaution to light a lantern and set it upon the track, but the train came down and before it could slow up, collided with the loconotive and drove it ahead toward Cross Street bridge, carrying the injured man beneath it. When he was taken out he was dead and orribly mangled. He proved to be Engineer

W. Lankell, thirty-five years of age. He was a native of Montpelier, Vermont. On the lo comotive were Fireman Fred Trenham, a brakeman named Seers and Charles Cushing a frieght conductor. The fireman and brake-man were both scriously injured. The con-ductor was badly scalded.

GARRETT'S HEALTH IMPROVING. But He Will Not Be Fit For Business in Long Time.

BALTIMORE, February 5.—A reporter of the Sun returned today from a visit to Ringwood, N. J. where he had been sent to ascertain the true condition of Robert Garrett's health. It was ascertained that while Garrett is still in ession of his faculties most of the time, he still unfit to transact business, and his phy sicians will not permit affairs of that kind to be discussed in his presence or hearing. The tide in favor of Garrett's improvement set in with the beginning of the year, and it has yet known no turn. He has escaped the violent spells, which formerly followed each other at interwhich formerly followed each other at inter-vals of three weeks, and this time there is hope that they will not return. His physi-cians express surprise at the rapidity of his improvement, but do not give assurance of his complete recovery, at least in the near future, and will not say positively that he is not suffering from paresis. Garrett will re-main at Ringwood until April 1st next, as the lease on the property until that time has been secured. If Garrett's health will then permit it, he will then go on an extended European

VIENNA IN MOURNING.

THE FUNERAL OF CROWN PRINCE RUDOLPH.

THE PROCESSION TO THE CHURCH

How the Royal People Were Seated-Emperor Francis Kneels in Prayer-Last Look at the Dead Prince.

VIENNA, February 5.- This city was today entirely given over to mourning. All places of business were closed and shops throughout the city put up their shutters early in the fore-Many streets usually bright and animated wore a deserted look, the life of the town being concentrated around the spot where the obsequies of the crown prince were held. Thoroughfares leading to the hofburg bear ample evidence of the public sorrow. Numberless emblems of mourning, black flags and draperies float from roofs or droop from windows. A bust of the crown prince, surrounded with flowers, gleam amid the sable adornments of balconies.

Enormous crowds commenced to assemble outside the court chapel at an early hour in the morning. Perfect order prevailed, however, in contrast with the disorder of yesterday. The admission of the public into the chapel ceased at 10 o'clock, when troops barred the streets leading to the hofburg.

A REQUIEM MASS.

The emperor and empress and crown princess attended a requiem mass in the oratory of the palace, at which the Miserere was sung by the court choir. The service was ended at noon. The church bells then commenced to toll. The coffin lid was fastened at 2 o'clock, and the key was confided to Prince Hohenlohe as court marshal. Soon afterward the gates of the chapel were closed, and members of the imperial family gathered around the catafalque to take a last look of farewell at the remains. The imperial guard in the meantime had taken position in the ring, and mourners invited to the funeral were arriving. Just before 4 o'clock, members of the imperial house, who had left the chapel, stopped in front of the side entrance of Capuchin church, in Kloster Gasse, where they were received by Prince Hohenlohe: Prince Hunyadi, chief master of ceremonies and father guardian, accompanied by friends of the community bearing lighted

THE INTERIOR OF THE CHURCH. The imperial party wended their way through the cloister to the church. The interior of the church was entirely draped in black. The benches and seats were covered with sable cloth and the floor was carpeted with black. Three rows of benches stretched from the entrance along the nave on the left, or gospel side, while the rest of the space on this side, nearer the high altar, was filled by a dais with three rows of priedie. The first row was for the emperor and the king and queen of the Belgians, and the other two rows for the archdukes and archduchesses.

The catafalque was erected in the middle of the church, and was surrounded by massive candelebra. Near the catafalque was a tab ouret for Archbishop Ganglbauer, who celebrated a pontifical mass. To the right of the main aisle, on the epistle side and opposite the imperial dais, were priedic for the use of Monsignor Galimberti, papal nuncio, and other THE PROCESSION STARTS.

Ministers of empire, ed by Count Kalnoky, Count Von Taafe, and Herr Von Tisza, and accompanied by privy councillors, took up pesition to the right of the catafalque. The letter from Rudolph to Lzoegyenyi expressing weariness of life, although not dated, is known to have been written at Meyerling on January 29th. The True Story of His Death.

On Tuesday afternoon last a baroness, who name is not given, but who is described as a beautiful girl, not tall, rather dark, and of lively disposition, arrived at Meyerling and took up quarters in the gamekeeper's house, near the castle. The crown prince had been about an hour in the gamekeeper's house when a forester, equipped for the morning's chase, going to consult the gamekeeper, knocked loudly upon the door. A window was opened, and a man jumped out and fled. The forester

The Question of Succession Berlin, February 5.—Advices from Posth say that the question already engages the anx-ious attention of ministers, although no official notification respecting the succession will be made till the end of the year. The government organ, Pesther Lloyd, vaguely suggested yesterday the right of Princess Elizabeth to succeed to the throne. The Vienna press in the meantime treats the right of Archduke Karl as incontestable. Austrian politicians share in the existing derangement of the public mind. When the excitement abates and a clearer vision comes of the result of Rudolph's death, it will be seen that it involves the probability of a formidable conflict over the success.

ITALY INTERESTED IN AUSTRIAN SUCCESSION. The question of succession to the Austrian throne is causing increasing excitement in official and diplomatic circles. Papers quote an article from the Italia, official journal of Signor Crispi, Italian prime minister, declaring that the salic law has been virtually abolished in Austria-Hungary since the pragmatic sanction; therefore Crown Prince Rudolph's daughter is heir to the throne. It is certain that Signor Crispi does not relish the prospect of the heir of the duke of Modena, who was dispossessed by the action of Italy, should he become presumptive heir to the throne of Austria. Furthermore, both the Archduko Karl and his son Franz are ultra Catholic foes of the house of Savoy, and enemies of Italian unity, and are ardent allies of the vatican. Apart from these enmittes, even if class intering that the salic law has been virtually abol-Apart from these enmittes, even if class interests did not raise the question of succession, it would be doubtful if official opinion here would maintain the right of Emperor Francis Joseph in following a precedent to declare, through an act of succession, Princess Elizabeth heir to the throne day, on the third reading of the budget, Herr Munckel, progressist, raised the Geffeken affair, contending that the publication of the indictment against Geffeken, at the instance of Prince Bismarck, was quite incompatible with the laws of the empire.

Von Schelling, the new minister of justice, reminded the house how progressist journals had at first clamored for the publication of the indictment. Their demands, he said, had not influenced the course taken by the government, which perceived that it was only by giving publicity to the document that the country would be enabled to see that there was no material divergence of opinion between the public prosecutor and the imperial tribunal, and that the tribunal regarded the objective existence of treason as proved, ence of treason as proved. IT WAS A STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Although the document published was called an indictment, it was in reality an objective statement of facts. The tribunal only differed with the new public prosecutor on minor points. If there was any flaw in the indictment it was due to these being no learning the control of dictment, it was due to there being no law to bring them to justice for committing an unexampled breach of truth.

Von Schelling's response impressed the house with his tact and clearness of expression in dealing with such a difficult matter.

BULLOCK AND CHANDLER. GEORGIA'S EX-GOVERNOR LAYS OUT THE NEW HAMPSHIRE MAN.

rnor Bullock Opposes the Extreme Views of Certain Republican 1.6:ders-The Controversy in Full.

That distinguished citizen of Atlanta, ex-Governor R. B. Bullock, seems to have been ushed into quite an active controversy with the extreme members of his party.

Early last spring he opened a correspondence with the New York Press—a wide awake re-publican advocate of a protective tariff. The plea made by the ex-governor at that time was that his party in the then coming campaign should make the issue on the economic question, and not hamper itself by a campaign of prejudices by further legislation on the color

Governor Bullock maintained that national authority had already done for the negro in the amended constitution all that it could do, and that the greatest progress had been made in the south toward willing acceptance of the colored man as a citizen and a political factor, since a republican congress in 1872 abandoned all further efforts to use force in the negroes' behalf.

The little senator from New Hampshire, in a magazine article, referred to Governor Bullock by name as "a political outcast, who had purchased peace and a safe return to Georgia by advising the abandonment by republiby advising the abandonment by republicans of the fifteenth amendment."

A response was sent by Governor Bullock to the magazine, but owing to "want of space" publication was declined. The Constitution and the Press, however, published the governor's rejoinder in full. He also had the satisfaction of seeing his advice prevail in the councils of his party in national convention, and the tariff made the leading issue in a platform in which there was no feature to excite form in which there was no feature to excite race prejudices.

Since the election the extremists have again Since the election the extremists have again come to the front demanding legislation by congress to establish a framework of election laws to be applied to the south, and this Governor Bullok stremuously opposes. He maintains that if it be true that votes are suppressed, and that members from the south take seats in congress who represent only a minority of the voters in their districts, that the trouble can easily be reached and corrected by the house of representatives amending its present rules, and to leave to the several states and the people thereof the control and management of all elections.

This plan, which is referred to as the "Bul-

This plan, which is referred to as the "Bullock idea." has been widely discussed by the newspapers of the country.

Extreme radical journals condemn, while conservative republican papers approve the suggestion as one at least worthy of trial before new and harsh measures are attempted.

The Construction has on niore than one occasion expressed its disapprobation in editorial comment, but the discussion in which Governor Bullock has the affirmative is exclusive some procession of the control of th Governor Bellock has the albrinative is excluding so much attention that this paper has published as a matter of news from time to time copies of Governor Bullock's letters to the New York Press and to the Chicago Tribune. Recently a correspondent from Atlanta, signing himself "Republican," published a communication in the New York Press urging as munication in the New York Press urging as a reason for extreme legislation by congress, that the courtesies extended here to Mr. Davis at the unveiling of the itill statue indicated a lurking spirit of treason, and that Governor Bullock's remedy was insufficient to correct the alleged evil; that only an army of election supervisors, supported by an army of bayonets, could secure the republican ballots. To this communication the governor responds as follows:

Mr. Davis since the surrender.
Your correspondent says: "Fair elections are quired, and they cannot be assured by the Buiektiden." Why not?

Your correspondent says: "Pair elections are required, and they cannot be assured by the Bullock idea," Why not?
Under the constitution the national government has no authority over any elections but those for congressmen. If such elections are not full and fair, the "Bullock idea" leaves the claimant outside of congress until that body investigates and passes "judgment" on his election. Isn't that a positive, practical way of meeting the evil? But your correspondent further says: "We need the protection of the United States government for the disfrachised republicans of the south." I ask." How can it he had? For example, the constitution of Georgia requires that all persons otherwise entitled to vote—black or white, republican or democrat—shall have paid all taxes required of them before they can east a ballot. All voters must pay sleach per year poil tax to the free school fund, and when the voter has no property this is the limit of his state tax. Now, the republican or democrat who neglects or refuses to pay this tax is disfranchised. Does your correspondent point out any way in which the "protection of the United States government" can relieve the voter of this disfranchised. Does your correspondent point out any way in which the "protection of the United States government" can relieve the voter of this disfranchised, bear united the voter of this disfranchised, the protection of the United States government? Can be? If his communication suggests any plan at all it is that a republican congress shall hame a code of election laws, with inspectors, supervisors, registers, etc. If he is as well informed as he should be he must know that such election laws, if enacted, could only apply to elections for congressmen, and could have no control whatever over local of state elections. He should also know and remember that it is the republican election laws of the member that it is the republican election laws of Florida and Leuisiana, now administered bow was democrates, which makes those states to "solid".

now administered by the democrats, which makes those sittes so "solid".

A republican majority in congress heretofore has explored, and for good reasons abandoned, the line suggested by your correspondent. The remedy I suggested by your correspondent. The well-station or any legislation by congress. It is wholly within the constitutional authority of congress, and will meet the objection to unfair representation in that body. The ordy hope for a better political condition here is from a division among our white people upon some other than the color line.

If e progress made in this direction, and the assimilation of the black citizens with the body politic since the polity of fed-ral interference was abandonded, is one of the political wonders of this age, and its complete realization can only be attained by the willing consent or communities. Interference and force from without has herefolore only relarded this growth of sentiment so necessary to a peaceful solution of the question. The remedy I advise will protect congress from the presentative of their disurt; as, and will encourage our people to so manage and hold elections that the result will not only bear partisan investigation but be above suspicion.

The strongest presentation yet made of the only beat partisan investigation but be above suspicion.

The strongest presentation yet made of the "methods employed to suppress the republican vote" is the address of Hon. E. M. Brayton, chairman of the republican committee of South Carolina, and yet the evidence he quotes to show the outrages by democratic use of republican laws in that state is ample to demonstrate that the damocrats are dividing among themselves upon questions of local administration, and that the evil will compel its own remedy if left with the people. When a change for eached in this way it will be effective and permanent. It is for a change for a change of this character that I plead.

While I am willing to defend my suggestion of a remedy by whomsever assatide. I cannot continue discussion with a correspondent who withholds his proper name.

Hill et al., assignees, etc., vs. Silvey et al. Equity, from Fulton. Banks. Stockholders. Charter. Subsequent creditors. Notice. Practice. Before Judge Adams.

Bleckley, C. J., being disqualified, Judge Gustin, of the Macon circuit, was designated to preside in his stead.

Gustin, J.—The charter of a bank provided the sum of $200,000 as the minimum amount of capital which would authorize it to do business, and that subscribers for stock should be liable for the debts of the bank to the extent of the unpaid stock subscribed for by them, in proportion to the number of shares held by them. There was a stock subscription list amounting to $408,200, and an organization of the bank in which 2,400 shares of stock were represented. In pursuance of regular calls, the subscribers represented in the organization paid fifty per cent on their subscribed stock. On June 30, 1873, a return was made to the governor, under section 1,467 of the code, representing the capital stock paid in as $140,-340, and containing no statement of the capital stock subscribed. No action was taken definitely fixing any amount as the capital stock until January, 1874, when the stockrepresenting the capital stock paid in as $140,-340, and containing no statement of the capital stock subscribed. No action was taken definitely fixing any amount as the capital stock until January, 1874, when the stock-holders, by resolution, declared that it was thought best to reduce the stock to full paid up stock, that certificates of stock be issued for the amount actually paid in, and that the capital stock and subscriptions be reduced to the amounts actually paid in; providing farther that the books should be opened for additional subscriptions of full paid up stock, to remain open until the whole capital stock subscribed should reach the sum of $400,000. No certificates of stock were issued until after this action. Other returns to the governor were made from year to year, showing the amount of capital stock as gradually increasing to $180,000, then decreasing to $190,000 on December 31, 1850, when the last return was made. The bank becoming insolvent, in 1881, made an assignment of all its property, rights, etc., for the benefit of its creditors. Under a bill filed by the state of Georgia in behalf of itself and other creditors, the assignees were appointed receivers of all the property, etc., assigned to them. They brought a bill against the stockholders to celfect the remaining fifty per cent on their subscriptions, alleging that the resolutions above referred to were void, and that the unpaid fifty per cent were assets of the bank which passed by the deed of assignment, and were a fund in equity to be collected and applied to the payment of the bank, also, were made parties defendant for the purpose of enfolning them from proceeding by separate actions against the stockholders. It appears that all the debts due by the bank have been created since the adoption of the resolutions mentioned, and no creditor sets up any special claim or equity was given upon the express faith of the original stock subscriptions; and no act or statement of the corporation is shown by which it has ever, in any manner, so

THE EXPERIMENT FARM THE DIRECTORS HELD ANOTHER

SESSION YESTERDAY. REMARKS BY GOVERNOR GORDON

The Committee From the Trustees of the University Submits Their Report, Which Leads to an Important Resolution Favorable to the Trustees-The Board Decides to Hold Regular Meetings on the First Tuesdays in February, May, August and November of Each Year.

The board of directors of the Georgia experinent station were in session again yesterday. The full board were present.

On motion of Mr. Rushin, the minutes were read and approved.

Rules and regulations for the government of the board were reported and adopted. The regular meetings of the board will be held on the first Tuesdays in the months of Ferruary May, August and November of each year.

THE GOVERNOR SPEAKS. A resolution was adopted notifying the governor of the organization of the board and inviting him to make any communication to the board which he might think proper.

viting him to make any communication to the board which he might think proper.

Governor Gordon appeared before the board and was cordially received.

He made a brief speech. He spoke of the important interests entrusted to the board of directors of the Georgia experiment farm. This station would be of great value to the farmers of the state. It would give them the power to ascertain, by practical experiment, the different kinds of crops which are best adapted to the soil and climate of all portions of the state, and to show the value of the different crops raised upon the lands of the state in a scientific as well as a practical way.

The duties dévolving upon the board were as important as those devolving upon any officer in the state, and he was satisfied that this board of directors would have the courage and the patriotism to discharge their duties to the whole people of Georgia.

REFORT OF THE TRUSTEES' COMMITTEE.

EX-Governor H. D. McDaniel and Hon. Henry W. Grady, of the committee from the trustees of the state university, submitted a report in accordance with the resolution of Mr. Peek adopted on Monday. The report stated that the sum of $5,500 was necessary to fill the contracts made in good faith by the representatives of the trustees of the calvin bill.

After this report had been submitted, owing to the absence of Attorney General Clifford Anderson, the board, by resolution, requested sity before the passage of the Calvin bill.

After this report had been submitted, owing to the absence of Attorney General Clifford Anderson, the board, by resolution, requested Governor Gordon to furnish them with competent legal advice as to whether or not the board had the right to allow the trustees of the university to use any of the appropriation of $7,500 due April 1st and July 1st, 1889, to carry out contracts so made.

In pursuance of this request the Hon. N. J. Hammond and Judge James T. Nisbet came before the board and gave their legal opinion in reference to the question, which will be found appended to the following resolution, introduced by Professor H. C. White:

VERY IMPORTANT RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That this board of directors authorizes the governor of Georgia to pay to the board of control of the experimental station, established before the passage of the act of the general sasembly, approved Pecember 29th, 1888, generally known as the Calvin bill, the sum of $5550, or so much thereof as may be necessary to fleguldate the contracts made to carry on the work of such station entered into before said date, as specified in the paper filed with the board this day by the committee of said board of control; such amount to be paid out of funds received from the general government under the latch act.

Resolved 2. That the board of trustees of the uni-

Resolvea 2. That the board of trustees of the university of Georgia be and are hereby notified in accordance with section 8th of the act aforesaid, that any or all purchase of apparatus, etc., made by them with moneys drawn under the Hatch bill or the act amendatory thereof, by reason of an executive order from the governor of the state of date. June 14, 1888, shall be subject to the order of this board to be used by it, in furtherance of the provisions of said act.

Resolved 3. That the sceretary of this board durnish to the secretary of the board of trustees of the state university, and to his excellence, the governor, each, a copy of these resolutions, together with a copy of the itemized statement menioned in resolution first. TWO ORDERS.

Mr. Ryals introduced the following resolutions which were adopted.

Ordered, That pursuant to section 9 of an act of the general assembly entitled "An act to establish in this state an experiment station," approved December 29, 1888, his excellency, the governor, be authorized and requested to draw the installment which, under an act of congress cutified "An act to establish arricultural stations," approved March 2, 1887, and the acts of congress supplementary thereto, will be due the state of Georgia or the 1st day of April, 1889, and deposit the same in the state treasury as a special fund to the credit and subject to the order of this board.

April, 1889, and deposit the same in the state treasury as a special fund to the credit and subject to the order of this board.

Ordered further, That a copy of this and of the foregoing order, duly attested by the president and secretary of this board, be transmitted to his excellency, the governor, and to the honorable secretary of the treasury of the United States. At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the board adjourned to meet in this city on the 9th day

Only a few of these symptoms likely to be present at once. Thousands of cases result in consumption, and end in the grave.

By its mild, soothing, antiseptic, cleansing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Remedy cures the worst cases. This infallible remedy does not, like the poisonous irritating snuffs, "creams" and strong caustic solutions with which the public have long been humbugged, simply palliate for a short time, or drive the disease to the lungs, as there is danger of doing in the use of such nostrums, but it produces perfect and permanent cures of the worst cases of Chronic Catarrh, as thousands can testity. "Cold in the Head" is cured with a few applications. Catarrhal Headache is releved and cured as if by magic. It removes offensive breath, loss or impairment of the sense of taste, smell or hearing, watering or weak eyes, and impaired memory, when caused by the violence of Catarrh, as they all frequently are. By druggists, 50 cents.

PARTY OF EASTERN RAILWAY MAGNATES IS MOVING.

THE DAY IN THE RAILROAD WORLD.

The Vicksburg and Meridian Bought by the Prestdent of the Queen and Crescent System-Exeursion Tickets on Sale-Mr. Gabbett Moves to Atlanta-What the Rillroad Boys are Doing.

A party of distinguished gentlemen-railroad men and financiers of the north-left New York on Monday evening for a tour over the lines of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company. Mr. Ex. Norton, president of the Louisville and Nashville, is at the head of the party, and among the others are such well-known gentlemen as Andrew Carnegie. B. C. Clark, William L. Abbott, James W. B. C. Clark, William L. Abbott, James W. Paul, Jr., Edmund Smith, Thomas Ruiter, James M. Swank, Logan C. Murray, R. P. Flower, F. J. Kimbell, H. H. Porter, R. T. Wilson, M. H. Smith, John H. Inman, Samuel Thomas, of Thomas iron company, Pennsylvania; J. D. Probet, John Hutchins and J. Moore.

From New York the party went over the Pennsylvania railroad and Richmond and Danville as far as Lynchburg, Varinorning. Yesterday they went over the Nor-folk and Western railroad to Roanoke, and from there to Bristol. This morning they ar-vived in Chattanooga. At 10:30 they leave for South Pittsburg, Victoria and Inman, taking supper at Cowan. From Chattanooga they go to Nashville, and from Nashville to Decatur, Ala.; thence to Oxmoor, which is near Birmingham. Friday they spend in visiting Bessemer, Woodstock, New Wheeling, Ensley, Thomas' iron works and Gate City, spending Friday night in Birmingham. On Saturday they go up Murphree's valley, and on to Trussville, retarning to Birmingham in time to they go up Murphree's valley, and on to Trussville, returning to Birmingham in time to leave at 6 o'clock by a special train for Pensacola, Fla. Sunday they leave Pensacola for New Orleans, stop at Pass Christian and Bay Saint Louis. They reach New Orleans early Monday, spend the day there, and the next day leave for Memphis, Louisville and Nashville.

Mr. S. M. Inman, Captain E. P. Howell and Mr. W. H. Grady have been invited to join the party, and will probably do so at 1 o'clock loday.

Sale of the Vicksburg and Meridian. Jackson, Miss., February 5.—The entire property of the Vicksburg and Meridian railoroad, including the road bed, franchise, rolling stock and lands now forming part of the Queen and Crescent system, was sold yesterday under a decree of fereclosure by the United States court for the southern district of Mississippi, to Messrs Charles Schiff, Edward Colston, W. L. Nugent, J. F. Winslow and W. S Jarvis for about $600,000, and will continue to form a part of the Queen and Crescent system.

The road is about one hundred and fifty miles long, and, as has been stated, forms a link in the Queen and Crescent line to New Orleans, but has not been used by that line. For three years it has been in the hands of a receiver, and has not done much business. receiver, and has not done much business. The most plausible theory advanced as to the falling off of the business is that the Queen and Crescent people were anxious to become the successful bidders for the road, and desiring to get it as cheaply as possible, threw all their business that was possible via the New Orleans and Northeastern, thus depreciating the earnings of the other road, and making it of apparently less value on the market. A large number of railroad men were in Jackson. Among those who were upon the field were President Schiff, Gault and Wells of the Queen and Crescent system, and F. S. Bond, president of the Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad and receiver of the Vicksburg and Meridian railroad. The East Tennessee also had a delegation at the sale too.

The Montezuma Special.

George W. Ely, traveling passenger agent of the Mexican International railroad, with headquarters in Montgomery, was in Atlanta yesterday working in Montgomery, was in Atlanta yesterday working up his, Montezuma special, which makes its first start from New Orleans temofrow. The train is said to be the finest on earth. It was expressly designed and constructed for the service, and in its appointments will outrival any ever put upon the rail in the embodiment of art and mechanical skill. The cars were constructed in Pullman, Ills, and are of the vestibuled design, and four in number. The composite car contains the apparatus for generating and operating the electric lights, has special compartment for baggage, and is provided with an elegant barber shop and bath room for gentlemen, furnishing a refreshing hot or cold water bath en route. The bathroom is ample, with richly curtained windows and electric lights, and the rub inclosed in solid mahogany. This car also contains a library and smocking room.

solid mahogany. This car also contains a library and smoking room.

The dining car, the "Ponce de Leon," is furnished with all the usual and well-known conveniences. The culsine, being under the direct management of the Pullman Fallace Car company, is a sufficient guarantee of a perfect service.

The two sleeping cars, the "Trinidad" and the "Calman" consist each of twelve sections, and contain drawing rooms and tollet rooms for ladies and centlemen. These cars, finished in mahogany and carpeted and upholstered in harmonizing colors, present at once a picture of rare comfort and luxury. The train will move over the Sunset route, the Mexican International indiroad and the Mexican Central railway, and will be seventy-two hours in motion.

Over the Cross Ties.

Over the Cross Ties. Bob Mann ticketed a party of three to lena, Montana, yesterday.

Steve Johnston, passenger agent of the Queen and Crescent, has gone to Griffin.

The Central of Georgia is out in a neat, new folder, advertising southern transl T. C. Sturgis, passenger agent of the East Master Mechanic Newman, of the Georgia

Pacific, came up from Birmingham yesterday,
S. R. Van Diver, general agent of the Atlanta and Florida, left yesterday for Kansas City. Charley Hopkins, passenger agent of the East Tennessee, came in from California yesterday. Conductors Perkerson and Patterson, of the Georgia Pacific, are off attending court as witnesses. S. O. Beall, ticket agent of the Richmond and Danville, left for Florida yesterday on account of his health.

The Air Line was five hours behind yesterday. The delay was caused by a freight train leaving the track at Longrey.

J. A. Gee, passenger agent of the Atlanta aed West Point, will ride on the Mountezuma special bomorrow.

Captain I. Y. Sage, general superintendent the Georgia Pacific, is out on a trip over the east vertisement of the road.

Major E. Berkely, superintendent of the Atlanta and Charlotte division of the Richmond and Panville, left for Washington yesterday.

Cecil Gabbett, general manager of the Western Rallway of Alabama, has moved his family to Atlanta and is now residing on Forest avenue.

G. W. Allen has been appointed passenger agent of the Texas Pacific. He has been with the Atlanta and West Point and Ceffital raffroads for years.

Fred. D. Bush, district passenger agent of the Louisville and Assaville railroad, returned to beadquarters yesterday from a flying trip to Little Rock, Ark. sek Ark.

The Queen and Urescent is advertising a le-fare excursion to the presidential inauguration, ne circular is adocuted with a splendid picture of

COLLECTOR WILSON'S BONDSMEN. Only $4,000 Still Dae-The County Will Not Lose a Cent. Colonel W. S. Thomson, the county after-

Colonel W. S. Thomson, the county attorney, said yesterday:

"W. C. Parker, W. L. Wilson, G. E. Mc-Larin and C. M. Cole, the bondsmen of Tax Collector Wilson for 1887 and 1888, paid in full today the deficit for those years. It amounted to $7,837.47. That releases these bondsmen with the exception of Mr. G. E. McLarin, who is on the bond for 1886.

"The bondsmen for 1886 are Boseman Adair, C. W. Wells, S. A. Wilson, A. A. Wilson, A. A. Wilson, G. E. McLarin, J. A. McCoel, G. H. Tanner and J. N. Latham. Mr. A. A. Wilson and Mr. G. E. McLarin paid $1,650 on the deficit for 1886. That leaves only about $4,000 due the county on the tax collector's bond. The bondsmen are perfectly good for that and have told me that they would pay it in March. "These sureties are business men and wanted to get rid of the encumberance, and thought the surest way was to pay out of it. The county will not lose a cent."

MORE GOODS COME IN,

And the Evidence About Complete Against the Negro Burgiars.

In The Constitution vesterday was the account of the capture of a gang of negroes, charged with burgiary, and the recovery of a quantity of goods stolen from Mr. John O'Neal's store last Saturday night.

Sa Sergeant Mike White, Detectives Bedford and Cason, and Mounted Officers English, Goodson, and Mercer, who worked up the case, were at work on it again yesterday, and recovered another lot of the stolen goods.

It is now believed that Shed Hutchins, the negro boy that shot Mollie Young Monday afternoon, is one of the gang and that the shooting was intentional and done for a purpose.

The girl knew Something about it and to been her from giving anything away Hutchins

The grif knew Semething about it and to keep her from giving anything away Hutchins tried to kill her.

The gang have never figured in burglary court cases before, but it is believed that they are an organized gang and that a number of recent burglaries can be traced back to them.

The House Ransacked.

Mr. G. K. Woodward's home, on Capitol avenue, was ransacked Saturday while the family were away from home. Trunks and bureaus were emptied and their contents piled up together in the middle of the room.

In one of the trunk trays was a jewelry case. There is a false bottom in this and under it were a pair of diamond earrings and a diamond ring. The case had been opened, but the thief didn't understand the false bottom, and the case was dropped on the floor, still open, and the jewelry safe inside.

The search was for money and jewelry, evidently as no clothing was taken. Only a small sum of money was lost.

Lumbago.

General F. B. Spinola, member of congress from New York city, writes: "It is a public duty I perform when I testify to the remarkable curative power of Alleock's porous plasters. For several years I have been at times troubled with violent attacks of lumbago. They would last for several weeks fumbar regions not only to my feet, but to my finger ends. Some months ago I had a most severe attack, and was confined to my bed, almost paralyzed. I felt much discouraged, and thought of recurring to electric shocks, when Senator Nelson sent me six Allcock's porous plasters. I immediately applied three -one over the kidneys, one on the small of my back, and one on my hip joint, where I had considerable sciatic pain. The effect was simply wonderful. In six hours I was able to sleep, the violent pain having mostly ceased. I continued to wear the plasters for some days, when I felt that I was almost entirely cured. I kept them on for nearly a month, as a mat-ter of precaution."

THE CASE IN COURT.

EDITOR CAMPBELL WANTS TWENTY-

FOR THE WHIPPING HE RECEIVED

The Rather Famous Fight Between Mr. Tom Cobb Jackson and Editor Campbell, of the Avalanche, is Taken Into the Courts by a Damage Suit-Other Court Matters.

The Jackson-Campbell fight has been revived in another shape.

John C. Campbell has filed suit against T.

C. Jackson, Edward S. McCandless, Burton Smith and Harvey Johnson for twentyfive thousand dollars damages.

In his petition Mr. Campbell says:

"That the said defendants heretofore, towit, on the 11th day of September, 1838, at the junction of Peachtree and Decatur streets, in the city of Atlanta, state and county aforesaid, with force and arms, assaulted petitioner, and then and there gave and struck petitioner a great many violent blows and strokes, on and about divers parts of his body, to-wit, on his neck, head, shoulders, arms and chest, thereby inflicting on petitioner various, serious and deep bruises and wounds and then and there and thereby knocking petitioner down and throwing him prostrate on the hard pave-ment, and then and thereby rendering petitioner unconscious; and after was so knocked down and prostrated and rendered unconscious, defendants continued to beat, bruise and wound him by his beard and dashed him against the pavement and dragged him out on the sidewalk by his beard, and then and there continued to beat and bruise petitioner until interferred with by the bystanders. "Defendants in beating, bruising and wound-ing petitioner as aforesaid had and used fists, sticks and sharp instruments to petitioner un-

Mr. Campbell says that he was struck on the right eye and that organ was rendered entirely useless for a considerable time, and he will never recover the full use of it. The left eye, he says, has been injured through sympathy.

"Petitioner further shows that the said place where defendants assaulted and beat him as aforesaid, was then and there a very public place in the heart of said city of Atlanta, and the wrongs inflicted upon him by defend-ants were in the presence and view of the good citizens Said defendants were all young many and able-bodied men, and your petitioner was small, infirm and some 58 years of age."

One of the defendants, Burton Smith, whom petitioner knew, approached near where petitioner stood, and attracted his attention, and as petitioner turned his face towards said Smith, another of the defendants, T. C. Jackson, whom petitioner did not know, came up unnoticed by petitioner on his side opposite to where said Smith was, and began the attack upon petitioner, by means of which said several premises your petitioner was then and there greatly hurt,

Mr. Campbell states that he has suffered great pain of body and anguish of mind ever since the assault, and has been unable to attend to business. He closes his petition with the assertion that he has been damaged $25,000 worth by the defendants.

The suit was brought by Colonel E. N. Broyles as attorney for Mr. Campbell.

Damage Suits.

George Barnes, through his attorney, Colonel W. M. Bray, filed suit in the superior court yesterdey against the East Tennessee Railroad company for $10,000 damages because while he was loading lumber on a platform car at McPherson on the 21st of January last, he was kicked off by Lemons, the supervisor, and fell ten feet, seriously injuring his side. He says that on account of their failure to employ a humane supervisor the road has damaged him

JUDGE WARREN WRITES A LETTER In a Private Letter to a Friend in This City, Dated Spartanburg, S. C., January 20th, 1389, Judge Kit Warren Says:

I have now wandered for many weeks amid the grote-que and ever varying scenery of the ont section. Cheerless winter is abroad the land, but genial summer is in the hearts, homes and shops of this enterprising people. The evidences of thrift and the promise of increasing prosperity are everywhere visible.

Everything pertaining to the commercial, manufacturing and agricultural interests of this section, present a most gratifying and hopeful outlook.

Many of the people of this part of the state feel greatly interested in Atlanta and her energy and An instance to Illustrate this feeting was brought to my notice a few days ago, which is about

A distinguished physician of this state—one who stands at the head of his profession—whose wfitings have been eminently useful to his fellow practitioners, who is now, and has been for several years, a member of the state medical board of South Carolina, told me that he had four years ago two EPITHELEOMA OR SKIN CANCERS on his face and nose, which was a great source of trouble and anxiety to him. The sores grew in size, and seemed to be eating the flesh and tissues away to an extent which alarmed him. Examinations were made at various times by surgeons, and was each time pronounced cancer. Finally, the cancers was a bad, that amadyic of the medical board. grew so bad, that or advice of the medical board, he had decided to have them removed with the knife. Before doing this he was pursuaded to try the virtue of a medicine manufactured in Atlanta, known by the name of S. S. S .- Swift's Specific Taking this remedy saved him the trouble of the cutting with the knife, and has saved him many a troubled moment, as it cared the cancers entirely well about three year ago, and there has not been the slightest symptom of a return of the disease. No wonder that the doctor is an enthusiast ou S. S. He recommends it to every one who needs a ood remedy or tonic, and says it has always done
